

Hawaii Wildfires: Daily Fact Sheet – Oct. 11, 2023

Responders across the federal family are working closely with state, county and nonprofit partners to help communities affected by the Hawaii wildfires.

Recovery by the Numbers

- FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration have approved more than $188.6 million in federal assistance to survivors of the Maui wildfires that began Aug. 8. This includes:
 - $30,507,562 in FEMA assistance approved for individuals and households, including:
 - $14,544,780 approved for housing assistance.
 - $15,962,781 approved for Other Needs Assistance.
 - $158,115,200 in SBA disaster loans approved for affected Maui homeowners, renters and businesses.
- Maui County was designated for FEMA Individual Assistance, and
 - 6,276 households have been approved for the Individuals and Households Program.
- Three Maui County Disaster Recovery Centers are open. (See table below for locations and hours.)
- The American Red Cross and the Maui County government have housed 6,880 people on Maui and O‘ahu.
- The deadline to apply for FEMA assistance and a disaster loan for physical property damage from the U.S. Small Business Administration is Thursday, Nov. 9. The last day for small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives and most private nonprofit organizations to apply for an SBA economic injury disaster loan is Friday, May 10, 2024.

Key Messages

FEMA Housing Options

- FEMA has approved two kinds of direct housing: Direct Lease and Multi-family Lease and Repair:
 - Direct Lease: FEMA leases residential properties for use by survivors.
 - Multi-family Lease and Repair: FEMA arranges to repair owners’ multi-family (3+) dwellings in exchange for owners agreeing to temporarily house eligible applicants.

Private Nonprofit Organizations, Including Houses of Worship, May Be Eligible for Disaster Assistance

- Private nonprofits, including houses of worship and other faith-based organizations, may be eligible to apply for federal disaster assistance to help recover from the wildfires on Maui and the Big Island. Nonprofits also have until Wednesday, Oct. 25, to submit a Request for Public Assistance.
- Funding from the Public Assistance program can be used to pay for debris removal, emergency protective measures and restoration of public infrastructure in Maui County. Hawaii County is designated to apply for eligible expenses for emergency protective measures.

Non-Citizens May Apply for Disaster Assistance

- FEMA is committed to helping all eligible individuals recover from the wildfires, including U.S. citizens, non-citizen nationals and qualified non-citizens. Survivors who do not qualify for federal assistance may still call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 for referrals to other sources of aid. To be eligible for FEMA's Individuals and Households Program, you must have had losses or damage from the wildfires on Maui but you can apply from anywhere you currently reside.

American Red Cross Continues to Assist Wildfire Survivors

- The American Red Cross has helped to care for some 7,200 people — about 78% of the pre-disaster population of Lahaina — who are staying in dozens of hotels. The organization is providing meals, health and mental care, help with navigating complex paperwork, funeral expenses, financial support to transition out of hotels, and other services to survivors, including those who are not eligible for some FEMA programs.
 - Disaster survivors are encouraged to schedule an appointment with the Red Cross at RedCross.org/HIhelp or speak to a Red Cross representative at any Disaster Recovery Center.

Ways to Apply for FEMA Assistance

- Visit DisasterAssistance.gov
- Use the FEMA mobile app
- Call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. If you use a relay service such as Video Relay Service, captioned telephone service or others, give FEMA your number for that service when you apply. Helpline operators speak many languages and lines are open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Press 2 for Spanish. Press 3 for an interpreter who speaks your language.
- For an American Sign Language video on how to apply, go to https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LU7wzRjByhI&list=PL720Kw_OoJlKOhtKG7HM_On_kEawus6FC&index=6
- Apply in person at any Disaster Recovery Center. Three Disaster Recovery Centers are open on Maui. At the centers, survivors can speak to FEMA specialists, get assistance applying for disaster assistance, connect with voluntary organizations and access other federal and state resources.

What FEMA Will Need When You Apply

- Name and Social Security Number of primary applicant
- Name and Social Security Number of co-applicant (encouraged, but not required)
- Current contact information
- Current and pre-disaster address (include ZIP code)
- Names of all occupants of the pre-disaster household
- Types of insurance held by the household
- Household pre-disaster annual gross income
- Losses caused by the disaster
- Bank account number and routing number for direct deposit of funds, if requested

Create a Disaster Assistance Account

- Stay in touch with FEMA, get important updates and easily upload documents by setting up your online disaster assistance account. Go to DisasterAssistance.gov and click on the green 'Check Status' button to create an online account. Use the same email you provided when you applied for assistance. If you applied for assistance online or via the FEMA app, then you already have a disaster assistance account.

Disaster Legal Services National Hotline is Open

- If you are facing civil legal issues as a result of the wildfires on Maui, you can now get free legal advice by calling the Disaster Legal Services national hotline at 888-743-5749. Attorneys provide help to low-income, elderly and other vulnerable residents who were affected by the wildfires.

Continued Rental Assistance for Maui Wildfire Survivors

- Residents of Maui who were affected by the wildfires and received initial rental assistance from FEMA may be eligible for continued rental assistance. If you need continued rental assistance, complete an Application for Continued Temporary Housing Assistance. To request the form, or to get help completing it, call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362.

Learn About Repair and Rebuilding in Kihei

- FEMA specialists are providing free repair and rebuilding tips at Ace Hardware, 1280 South Kihei Road in Kihei, from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. today, Oct. 10, to Saturday, Oct. 21. Specialists will not be at the store on Oct. 15.

FEMA Assistance Includes Funeral Expenses

- FEMA assistance may be available for funeral or reburial costs as a result of the wildfires. FEMA can help with the unexpected and uninsured expenses associated with the passing of an immediate family member during a declared major federal disaster or emergency.
- Maui County was designated for FEMA assistance. Even if you live outside the county, you and your family may still qualify for funeral assistance if the death occurred within the disaster area. To request funeral assistance, you must first apply to FEMA.

You Have Until Oct. 26 to Apply for Disaster Unemployment Assistance

- Residents who lost their jobs as a direct result of the Maui wildfires and live or work in Maui County now have until Thursday, Oct. 26, to apply for Disaster Unemployment Assistance. Apply online at huiclaims.hawaii.gov/#/

Visit MauiRecovers.org for Reopening and Recovery Information

- Re-entry permits are required for Lahaina residents and business owners to visit their property. Supported re-entry has resumed for Zones 3A, 3B and 3C (Wahikuli Road, Ainakea Road and Fleming Road).
 - For permits on a zone-by-zone basis, visit the Lahaina Civic Center and the County of Maui Kalana O Maui building. To identify your zone, visit mauirecovers.org and subscribe to the latest updates at: <https://www.mauirecovers.org/sign-up>.
 - Personal Protective Equipment and water, shade, washing stations and portable toilets are available to all participants on designated re-entry days.
 - The Hawaii Department of Health provides guidance on the risks of re-entry to the impacted areas: Re-Entry Guidance & Hazard Advisory.
 - For answers to your Frequently Asked Questions, click: <https://www.mauirecovers.org/recovery/reentry>.

Process for Helping to Identify Fire Victims

- Maui County has begun an appointment-based system for collecting DNA from family members of the missing. Call 808-270-7771 or send an email to FAC@mauicounty.gov to schedule an appointment.

- Family members living on the mainland or outside the United States should continue to call the FBI at 808-566-4300 or visit HN-COMMAND-POST@ic.fbi.gov for information on how to contribute DNA.

How to Appeal FEMA's Decision

- An appeal is a written request to FEMA to review your application for disaster assistance. It is also an opportunity to provide new or additional information not previously submitted that may affect FEMA's decision. Submit your appeal to FEMA within 60 days of the date on the determination letter. Call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 for more information. Learn more: <https://www.fema.gov/fact-sheet/how-appeal-femas-decision-10>

Rental Properties Wanted for Temporary Disaster Housing

- FEMA has approved two direct housing programs for Maui County survivors. For each program, FEMA will work with property management companies that act on behalf of the government and contract with property owners of rental units. The units are offered to survivors for up to 18 months. Maui County, the State of Hawaii, FEMA and the private sector are seeking owners of rental units suitable for families and individuals for both programs. For more information, <https://www.fema.gov/fact-sheet/rental-properties-wanted-temporary-disaster-housing>.

U.S. Small Business Administration

- The U.S. Small Business Administration has approved more than $153.9 million in federal disaster loans for Hawaii businesses, nonprofits and residents impacted by the Maui wildfires. That includes more than $46.6 million for businesses and more than $107.3 million to homeowners and renters to help them rebuild and recover from the disaster.
- Private nonprofits including houses of worship and other faith-based organizations that may be eligible to apply for FEMA Public Assistance grants must also apply for a low-interest disaster loan from SBA. Nonprofits do not need to wait for a decision from SBA to submit a Request for Public Assistance to FEMA through the Hawai'i Emergency Management Agency. Nonprofits have until Wednesday, Oct. 25, to submit their FEMA Requests for Public Assistance but until Friday, Oct. 20, to apply for SBA Public Assistance for physical damage.
- SBA representatives continue to be available at federal/state disaster recovery centers and Business Recovery Centers in Maui, Oahu, Kauai and Hawaii to provide information on SBA disaster loans and help each applicant apply to SBA. The Small Business Administration and Operation Hope have opened a Business Resource and Assessment Center on Maui. The location is 590 Lipoa Street, Building A, Suite 202 in Kihei. Hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday to Friday, and 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturday.
- Applicants may apply online, receive additional disaster assistance information, and download applications at <https://www.sba.gov/hawaii-wildfires>. Applicants may also call SBA's Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance.
- For people who are deaf, hard-of-hearing or have a speech disability, dial 711 to access telecommunications relay services. Completed applications should be mailed to U.S. Small Business Administration, Processing and Disbursement Center, 14925 Kingsport Road, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

Other Federal Actions

- The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development is providing a 90-day relief (until Wednesday, Nov. 8) from foreclosures of Federal Housing Administration-insured mortgages and home equity conversion mortgages. Homeowners can call the FHA Resource Center at 800-304-9320 or visit hud.gov for more information.
 - HUD-certified housing agencies can provide additional counseling about your post-disaster housing needs. To find a HUD-approved agency, visit hud.gov/findacounselor or call 800-569-4287 or 202-708-1455 (TTY).

Additional State and Voluntary Actions

- The Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement is connecting survivors to a variety of community support services at its Kakao Maui Resource Hub at 70 Kaahumanu Avenue in Kahului. The Resource Hub is open 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily.
