

Recovery Update Maui Wildfires Nov. 3, 2023

Since wildfires swept over the Island of Maui Aug. 8, more than $249.6 million in federal assistance has been approved for 6,564 households. FEMA is working closely with Maui County, the State of Hawai'i and federal and nonprofit partners, with a commitment to helping Maui residents continue their recovery.

Recovery by the Numbers

- FEMA and the U.S. Small Business Administration have approved more than $249.6 million in federal assistance to survivors of the wildfires and high winds on Maui. This includes:
 - $34,187,147 in FEMA assistance approved for individuals and households, including:
 - $16,305,820 approved for housing assistance
 - $17,881,326 approved for Other Needs Assistance
 - $215,500,000 in SBA disaster loans approved for affected Maui homeowners, renters and businesses.
- The American Red Cross and the Maui County government have housed 6,795 people on Maui and O'ahu.
- The deadline to apply for FEMA assistance and a U.S. Small Business Administration disaster loan for homeowners, renters and businesses for physical property damage is Thursday, Nov. 9. The last day for small businesses, small agricultural cooperatives and most private nonprofit organizations to apply for an SBA economic injury disaster loan is Friday, May 10, 2024.

Key Messages

- FEMA is actively seeking property owners here in Hawai'i who want to temporarily lease their vacation homes or other units to FEMA for use by disaster survivors. Interested property owners may send inquiries to: FEMA-DR4724-HI-Contracting@fema.dhs.gov.
- Disasters can create a wide range of emotions that may last for many months. If you are overcome by feelings of hopelessness and stress, you are not alone. Free, confidential crisis counseling services are available to wildfire survivors. Call Hawai'i Cares toll free at 800-753-6879 or dial or text Hawai'i Cares using the 3-digit calling code 988. This service is available all day, every day.
- If you are facing civil legal issues as a result of the wildfires and you cannot afford an attorney, you can now get legal advice by calling the Legal Aid Society of Hawai'i's toll-free lines at 808-536-4302 or 800-499-4302. The Disaster Legal Services national hotline is 888-743-5749. Free legal advice may be accessed online at <https://hawaii.freelegalanswers.org/>.

Housing Options

- FEMA has approved two direct housing programs to help Maui County survivors move out of hotels and into more permanent housing. Under Direct Lease, FEMA leases residential properties for use by survivors. Under the Multi-Family Lease and Repair program, FEMA arranges to repair owners' multi-family (3+) dwellings in exchange for owners agreeing to temporarily house eligible applicants.

- Maui County, the State of Hawai'i, FEMA and the private sector are seeking owners of rental units suitable for families and individuals for both programs. The units are offered to survivors for up to 18 months, until Feb. 10, 2025.
- Residents of Maui who were affected by the wildfires and received initial rental assistance from FEMA may be eligible for continued rental assistance. Complete an Application for Continued Temporary Housing Assistance. To request the form, or to get help completing it, call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362.
- Temporary Assistance to Needy Families, a program managed by the state Department of Human Services and Maui Economic Opportunity, offers cash assistance to families affected by the wildfires. Eligible families must have at least one dependent child and experienced property loss or damage, and a reduction of earnings or employment as a direct result of the fires. Families are strongly encouraged to apply first to FEMA before applying to the Maui relief program. To apply, call 808-243-4316; email NRST@meoinc.org or visit www.meoinc.org.

Transportation Assistance Now Available for Maui Disaster Survivors

- Survivors whose homes were lost or damaged after the wildfires and high winds may be eligible for FEMA transportation assistance to travel to or from a temporary residence off the island of Maui. If you've already applied for FEMA disaster assistance, a specialist will reach out to you if you qualify for Transportation Assistance.
- The program gives Maui survivors more temporary housing options on other Hawaiian islands, the continental United States or any other U.S.-governed location.
- Survivors traveling from Maui to their new temporary home are eligible for one roundtrip fare for all household members, household pets and service animals. If you've already vacated the island, whether by assistance from FEMA or on your own, you may be eligible for a one-way fare for all household members to return to Maui.

Survivors Who Had High Wind Damage May Be Eligible for FEMA Assistance

- Maui survivors who applied for FEMA assistance and reported their homes were damaged by high winds but not by the wildfires may now be eligible for FEMA assistance.
 - You do not need to re-apply since you were asked about the cause of damage during your initial registration. Your application will be adjusted automatically. If you did not include wind damage when you applied, call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 and add the cause of damage to your application.

Non-Citizens May Apply for Disaster Assistance

- FEMA is committed to helping all eligible individuals recover from the wildfires, including U.S. citizens, non-citizen nationals and qualified non-citizens. Survivors who do not qualify for federal assistance may still call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 for referrals to other sources of aid. To be eligible for FEMA's Individuals and Households Program, you must have had losses or damage from the wildfires on Maui but you can apply from anywhere you currently reside.

American Red Cross Continues to Assist Wildfire Survivors

- The American Red Cross has helped to care for some 7,200 people – about 78% of the pre-disaster population of Lahaina – who are staying in dozens of hotels. The organization is providing meals, health and mental care, help with navigating complex paperwork, funeral expenses, financial support to transition out of hotels, and other services to survivors, including those who are not eligible for some FEMA programs.
 - Disaster survivors are encouraged to schedule an appointment with the Red Cross at RedCross.org/HIhelp or speak to a Red Cross representative at any Disaster Recovery Center.

Ways to Apply for FEMA Assistance

- Visit DisasterAssistance.gov
- Use the FEMA mobile app
- Call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362. If you use a relay service such as Video Relay Service, captioned telephone service or others, give FEMA your number for that service when you apply. Helpline operators speak many languages and lines are open from 1 a.m. to 8 p.m., seven days a week. Press 2 for Spanish. Press 3 for an interpreter who speaks your language.
- For an American Sign Language video on how to apply, go to https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LU7wzRjByhI&list=PL720Kw_OoJlKOhtKG7HM_On_kEawus6FC&index=6
- Apply in person at any Disaster Recovery Center. Three Disaster Recovery Centers are open on Maui. At the centers, survivors can speak to FEMA specialists, get assistance applying for disaster assistance, connect with voluntary organizations and access other federal and state resources.

Create a Disaster Assistance Account

- Stay in touch with FEMA, get important updates and easily upload documents by setting up your online disaster assistance account. Go to DisasterAssistance.gov and click on the green 'Check Status' button to create an online account. Use the same email you provided when you applied for assistance. If you applied for assistance online or via the FEMA app, then you already have a disaster assistance account.

Learn About Repair and Rebuilding Nov. 3 to Nov. 11 in Kahului

FEMA specialists are providing free repair and rebuilding tips at The Home Depot, 100 Pakaula St. in Kahului, from 7 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. today, Nov. 3, to Saturday, Nov. 11. Specialists will not be available Sunday, Nov. 5.

FEMA Assistance Includes Funeral Expenses

- FEMA assistance may be available for funeral or reburial costs as a result of the wildfires. FEMA can help with the unexpected and uninsured expenses associated with the passing of an immediate family member during a declared major federal disaster or emergency.
- Maui County was designated for FEMA assistance. Even if you live outside the county, you and your family may still qualify for funeral assistance if the death occurred within the disaster area. To request funeral assistance, you must first apply to FEMA.

Visit MauiRecovers.org for Reopening and Recovery Information

- Lahaina residents and business owners may apply for permits on a zone-by-zone basis at the Lahaina Civic Center and the County of Maui Kalana O Maui building. To identify your zone, visit mauirecovers.org and subscribe to the latest updates at: <https://www.mauirecovers.org/sign-up>.
- Personal Protective Equipment and water, shade, washing stations and portable toilets are available to all participants on designated re-entry days.
- The Hawai'i Department of Health provides guidance on the risks of re-entry to the impacted areas: Re-Entry Guidance & Hazard Advisory.

Allow 24 Hours Before Entry After Soil Stabilizer Treatments

- Soil stabilizer application has begun. Residents are asked to allow 24 hours from application of the soil stabilizer before entering their property. A sign is posted on the property stating the date and time it was treated. The soil stabilizer is non-toxic once dry. It reduces dust when the soil is disturbed.

Process for Helping to Identify Fire Victims

- Maui County has begun an appointment-based system for collecting DNA from family members of the missing. Call 808-270-7771 or send an email to FAC@mauicounty.gov to schedule an appointment.
 - Family members living on the mainland or outside the United States should continue to call the FBI at 808-566-4300 or visit HN-COMMAND-POST@ic.fbi.gov for information on how to contribute DNA.

How to Appeal FEMA's Decision

- An appeal is a written request to FEMA to review your application for disaster assistance. It is also an opportunity to provide new or additional information not previously submitted that may affect FEMA's decision. Submit your appeal to FEMA within 60 days of the date on the determination letter. Call the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 for more information. Learn more: <https://www.fema.gov/fact-sheet/how-appeal-femas-decision-10>

U.S. Small Business Administration

- The U.S. Small Business Administration has approved more than $215.5 million in federal disaster loans for Hawai'i businesses, nonprofits and residents impacted by the Maui wildfires. That includes more than $64.3 million for businesses and more than $151.1 million to homeowners and renters to help them rebuild and recover from the disaster.
- Private nonprofits including houses of worship and other faith-based organizations that may be eligible to apply for FEMA Public Assistance grants must also apply for a low-interest disaster loan from SBA. Nonprofits do not need to wait for a decision from SBA to submit a Request for Public Assistance to FEMA through the Hawai'i Emergency Management Agency. The application deadline passed on Oct. 25, but nonprofit organizations may still apply during the grace period.
- SBA closed its Portable Loan Outreach Center in Lahaina Oct. 31. However, SBA representatives continue to be available at federal/state disaster recovery centers and Business Recovery Centers on Maui, O'ahu, Kauai and Hawai'i to provide information on SBA disaster loans and help each applicant apply to SBA. The Business Recovery Centers on Kauai and Hawai'i will close Thursday, Nov. 9.
- Applicants may apply online, receive additional disaster assistance information, and download applications at <https://www.sba.gov/hawaii-wildfires>. Applicants may also call SBA's Customer Service Center at 800-659-2955 or email disastercustomerservice@sba.gov for more information on SBA disaster assistance.
- For people who are deaf, hard-of-hearing or have a speech disability, dial 711 to access telecommunications relay services. Completed applications should be mailed to U.S. Small Business Administration, Processing and Disbursement Center, 14925 Kingsport Road, Fort Worth, TX 76155.

Other Federal Actions

- The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development is providing a 90-day relief (until Wednesday, Nov. 8) from foreclosures of Federal Housing Administration-insured mortgages and home equity conversion mortgages. Homeowners can call the FHA Resource Center at 800-304-9320 or visit hud.gov for more information.
 - HUD-certified housing agencies can provide additional counseling about your post-disaster housing needs. To find a HUD-approved agency, visit hud.gov/findacounselor or call 800-569-4287 or 202-708-1455 (TTY).

Additional State and Voluntary Actions

- The Council for Native Hawaiian Advancement is connecting survivors to a variety of community support services at its Kakao Maui Resource Hub at 70 Kaahumanu Avenue in Kahului. The Resource Hub is open 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. daily.
