31st Annual Hawaii State Security Conference November 4-6, 2026 – Wailea Beach Resort, Maui, Hawaii

Ke Kanawai Mamalahoe — the Law of the Splintered Paddle

The grounds our shared Kuleana to protect all who call Hawai'i home. As we convene the 2026 Hawai'i State Security Conference, we face rising threats, higher expectations, and a renewed responsibility to safeguard our people and our way of life.

This gathering unites Hawaii's security, hospitality, business, and agency leaders to strengthen the network that keeps our island safe and to elevate the standards, cultural awareness, and mindset our people rely on every day.

The Hawaii State Security Conference runs over two-and-a-half days and is a strategic forum featuring various speakers and vendors. Here are some of the targeted topics for this year's event (not final/inclusive):

The Power of Respect: De-escalation Insights from a Hostage Negotiator
Open by Design, Hardened by Practice: A Case Study in Detecting and Disrupting Pre-Attack Campaigns
Cybersecurity in Hospitality: Protecting Guests, Operations, and Reputation in a Connected World
The New Frontline Reality: Mental Health Crises in Hospitality Spaces – Recognition and Behavioral Intervention
Hawaii Justification Principles for the Uses of Force: How is this Applied in Reality?
Force, Fraud, Coercion: Human Trafficking and the Reality in Hawaii
The Warrior versus Guardian Mentality: Managing the "Always-On" Officer Nervous System
